Rich Woman

I got a woman with plenty of money She got the money and I got the honey

Called my baby late last night She told me daddy everything was alright

I don't have to worry 'cause she's real fine I know my baby she's all mine

She give me a Cadillac a diamond ring She told me Daddy don't you worry 'bout a thing

She's all mine and I'm so glad She's the best woman I ever had

Killing The Blues

Written by Rowland Salley Graph Music (ASCAP)

Leaves were falling just like embers
In colors red and gold they set us on fire
Burning just like a moonbeam in our eyes
Somebody said they saw me
Swinging the world by the tail
Bouncing over a white cloud
Killing the blues

Now I am guilty of something
I hope you never do because there is nothing
Sadder than losing yourself in love
Somebody said they saw me
Swinging the world by the tail
Bouncing over a white cloud
Killing the blues

Now, you ask me just to leave you
To go out on my own and get what I need to
You want me to find what I've already had
Somebody said they saw me
Swinging the world by the tail
Bouncing over a white cloud
Killing the blues

Strange things are happening everyday
I hear the music up above my head
Though the sight of my heart has left me again
I hear music up above

Secrets are written in the sky Looks like I've lost the love I've never found Though the sound of hope has left me again I hear music up above

Standing in my broken heart all night long Darkness held me like a friend when love wore off Looking for the lamb that's hidden in the cross The finder's lost

I know I've loved you too much I'll go on alone to get through

I hear Rosetta singing in the night Echoes of light that shine like stars after they're gone Tonight she's my guide as I go on alone With the music up above

Polly Come Home

Written by Gene Clark ©1969 Irving Music, Inc. (BMI). Copyright renewed. All rights reserved. Used by permission.

If the wild bird could speak, He'd tell the places you have been He's been in my dreams And he knows all the ways of the wind

Polly, come home again Spread your wings to the wind I felt much of the pain As it begins

Dreams cover much time Still they leave blind The will to begin I searched for you there And now look for you from within

Polly, come home again Spread your wings to the wind I felt much of the pain As it begins

Some sunny day-hay baby When everything seems okay, baby You'll wake up and find that you're alone 'Cause I'll be gone Gone, gone, gone Really gone Gone, ga-gone, 'cause you done me wrong

Everyone that you meet baby
As you walk down the street baby
Will ask you why you're walkin' all alone
Why you're on your own
Just say I'm gone
Gone, gone, gone
Gone, ga-gone, 'cause you done me wrong

And if you change your way baby
You might get back to stay baby
Ya better hurry up if ya don't wanna be alone
Or I'll be gone
Gone, gone, gone
Really gone
Gone, ga-gone, 'cause you done me wrong

Through The Morning, Through The Night

Written by Gene Clark ©1969 Irving Music, Inc. (BMI). Copyright renewed. All rights reserved. Used by permission.

Believe me when I tell you
I will try to understand
Believe me when I tell you
I could never kill a man
But to know that another man's holding you tight
Hurts me little darling
Through the morning, through the night

The bond has been broken
The promise you gave
The words that were spoken
I cannot be your slave
But to know that the trust you had in me is gone
Hurts me little darling
Through the night-time through the dawn

I dreamed just last night
You were there by my side
Your sweet loving tenderness
Easing my pride
But then I awoke and found you not there
It was just my old memory of how much I care

Believe me when I tell you I will try to understand Believe me when I tell you I could never kill a man But to know that another man's holding you tight Hurts me little darling Through the morning, through the night

Caught out running with just a little too much to hide Maybe baby everything's going to turn out fine Please read the letter I nailed it to your door It's crazy how it all turned out we needed so much more

Too late too late a fool could read the signs Maybe baby you better check between the lines Please read the letter I wrote it in my sleep With help and consultation from the angels of the deep

Once I stood beside a well of many words
My house was full of rings and charms and pretty birds
Please understand me my walls came falling down
There's nothing here that's left for you
But check with lost and found

Please read the letter that I wrote Please read the letter that I wrote

One more song just before we go Remember baby you gotta reap just what you sow Please read my letter and promise me you'll keep The secrets and the memories that we cherish in the deep Please read the letter I nailed it to your door It's crazy how it all turned out we needed so much more

Trampled Rose

Written by Tom Waits and Kathleen Brennan Jalma Music (ASCAP)

Long way going to Get my medicine Sky's the autumn grey of a lonely wren

Piano from a window played Gone tomorrow, gone yesterday

I found it in the street At first I did not see Lying at my feet A trampled rose

Passing the hat in church It never stops going round

You never pay just once To get the job done

What I done to me, I done to you What happened to the trampled rose?

In the muddy street With the fireworks and leaves

A blind man with a cup I asked Would he play "Kisses Sweeter Than Wine"

I know that rose, Like I know my name The one I gave my love, It was the same Now I find it in the street, A trampled rose

Went to the fortune teller Had my fortune read I didn't know what to tell her I had a dizzy feeling in my head

Then she took a look at my palm She said son you feel kind of warm She looked into her crystal ball And said you're in love

How could that be so I thought of all the girls I know She said when the next one arrives You'll be looking into her eyes

I left there in a hurry Looking forward to my big surprise The next day I discovered That the fortune teller told me a lie

I hurried back down to that woman As mad as I could be I told her I didn't see nobody Why had she made a fool out of me

Then something struck me As if it came from up above While looking at the fortune teller I fell in love

Now I'm a happy fellow 'Cause I'm married to the fortune teller I'm happy as we can be Now I get my fortune told for free

Stick With Me Baby

Written by Mel Tills

© 1960 Universal-Cedarwood Pub. (BMI). Copyright renewed.

Everybody's been a-talkin'; they say our love wasn't real That it would soon be over; that's not the way I feel But don't worry, honey; let them say what they may Come on and stick with me, baby; we'll find a way Yes, we'll find a way

Everybody's been a-talkin'; yes, the news travels fast They said the fire would stop burnin'; That the flame wouldn't last But I don't worry, honey; let them say what they may Come on and stick with me, baby; we'll find a way Yes, we'll find a way

Come on and stick with me, baby

Nothin'

Written by Townes Van Zandt © 1970, 1999 (senewed) JTVZ Music (ASCAP)/Katic Belle Music (ASCAP)/Will Van Zandt Publishing (ASCAP) administered by Bug All rights reserved. Used by permission.

Hey mama, when you leave Don't leave a thing behind I don't want nothin', I can't use nothin'

Take care into the hall And if you see my friends Tell them I'm fine, not using nothin'

Almost burned out my eyes Threw my ears down to the floor I didn't see nothin', I didn't hear nothin'

I stood there like a block of stone Knowin' all I had to know And nothin' more, man that's nothin'

Being born is going blind And bowin' down a thousand times To echoes strung on pure temptation

Sorrow and solitude These are the precious things And the only words that are worth rememberin'

Hey mama, when you leave Don't leave a thing behind I don't want nothin', I can't use nothin'

Let Your Loss Be Your Lesson

Written by Milt Campbell © 2000 Trice Publishing Co. (BMI) administered by Bug All rights reserved. Used by permission.

Once I had myself a good woman But I just didn't treat her right I was always leaving Living the party life

True love was waiting for me I was much too blind to see Till she told me she would leave me I said that's alright with me

Oh, but now she's gone I realize I lost the best thing there is And my pride keeps telling me Let your loss be your lesson

Heaven knows I miss her loving Heaven knows how much I cry Just to think that she had left me And I know the reason why

I could tell she had been crying That didn't seem to bother me 'Cause I know there's no one blinder Than a fool who just couldn't see

Oh, but now she's gone I realize I lost the best thing there is And my pride keeps telling me Let your loss by your lesson

Your Long Journey

Written by A.D. Watson and Rosa Lee Watson © Hillgreen Music (BMI)

God's given us years of happiness here Now we must part And as the angels come and call for you The pains of grief tug at my heart Oh, my darling My darling My heart breaks as you take your long journey

Oh, the days will be empty
The nights so long without you my love
And when God calls for you I'm left alone
But we will meet in heaven above
Oh, my darling
My darling
My heart breaks as you take your long journey

Fond memories I'll keep of happy ways
That on earth we trod
And when I come we will walk hand in hand
As one in heaven in the family of God
Oh, my darling
My darling
My heart breaks as you take your long journey
